This birth date gives a person an exceedingly sensitive disposition, and one who does not place enough value on their own ability.

This weakness should be conquered, for, through will and desire, every man may attain the power to make himself successful in business.

"Think and act" must be the slogan of the person born on this date.

A woman with this birth date is not a place in the selection of her companions, r and will suffer injustice. She has not keen discrimination in the reading of characters.
